

2020.06.21 – The Great Reunion

Ashtar (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am Ashtar. I come at this point in your evolutionary process, in your awakening process.

For this is that grand awakening. This is what you all came here for. These are those times, those moments just prior to the Great Awakening. You are in it now. And you are moving through it rapidly. Because everything is exactly as it needs to be in these moments, even though everything appears around you to be in chaos.

There will be order coming from this chaos. Because you are moving through this process, and what is occurring is a separation. Yes, you must become united. But first, in order to do so, there must be that separation. A separation of the wheat from the chaff.

That is what is occurring. Some are calling it a timeline shift. That is also correct. Because those of you that are on the timeline that is in creation now, the creative process that you are in, you are creating the timeline that you want to be on. You are creating the timeline of the new higher vibrations and frequencies, moving into the higher dimensions.

And yes, you will be leaving behind those that are not ready for this. But fear not: those that are not ready, those that choose to not be ready, they will be accommodated just as they need to be. And no one, and I repeat: no one shall be lost. Even though they are temporarily lost to you, even if they may be family members. They will be back with you again.

For you, yourselves, have left many, many times your families, your loved ones, in many different systems, many planets. You have done this many times before. You have said good-bye, whether it was through a dying process or just simply leaving to move to continue on your journey.

You have left them before, always to return once again, to connect once again to your brothers and sisters, to your family members, to your loved ones. For they are all a part of our soul family—always will be, always have been. You will be back with them. Even those that have left you in this lifetime in the dying process: you will be reunited with them once again. And those that still yet may leave in that process, you will reunite with them again.

You are destined, my friends, you are destined to complete this journey that you came for. You made many promises long ago and, as you know, you volunteered to be here. But those times are coming to an end. This volunteering is coming to an end. You are close to reaching that finish line. We know you have heard this before. And in your third-dimensional illusionary understanding, you wonder, “When is it going to be? When is it going to be?” But our answer to you is you are in it right now.

You are at the cusp of the new awakening, the New Dawn that is coming. It is already approaching now. And if you look out and look beyond the chaos, you will see the blue skies. You will see the white fluffy clouds. You will see the flowers in the fields blooming. You will see and feel the water, consciousness within the water. You will know beauty, even within the seeming ugliness.

But the seeming ugliness is necessary for more and more people to awaken. That is what you are waiting for. Many of you could have ascended back in your 2012. Many of you were destined to do so. But you know that you all chose at a deeper level, within you at the Higher Self level, you chose to wait so that more and more of your brothers and sisters here could ascend with you.

That is what you came here for many, many lifetimes ago, to prepare the way for this Ascension process. To be those Way-Showers. To show the way. To prepare the way.

And along the way, the systems that are in place need to be changed. They need to be busted wide open. And that one you have as the president now, President Trump, is that System Buster. He has been put in place for this. He volunteered for this. He is the one that is leading you through this transition.

All of you must give him all of the strength that you can muster to provide for him the Light. Send him Light. He is in need of a great amount of Light now. For those of the dark forces will do everything that they can to hold him off, to hold those forces of the Light off.

But as you know, and as you have heard many times, and have begun to fully realize, the Light has already won, and what has started cannot be stopped. It can be postponed, and has been many times. But it cannot be fully stopped. You, those of you, the Light-Workers and Warriors are the ones that are paving the way forward. So continue to assist in any way that you can, any opportunity that arises to help others awaken.

Even if you may receive those attacks you speak of, those mental and emotional attacks, you can ward that off. You can protect yourselves. You have the tools: the Violet Flame, the Shield of Light, Archangel [Michael's] Blue Sword of Truth, the use of crystals. Whatever it is, whatever tool that works for you, you have it to use to shield yourself from negativity, to shield yourself from the dark forces attacking you. And in return, for reaching out to helping others, you will help more and more to awaken to who they are, just as you were helped by those of us to awaken to who you are. For you are all of us becoming. You are the ones that are going to take our places. You are the ones. You are the one.

I am Ashtar. And I leave you now in peace and love, as we continue to watch from above to assist whenever we find it possible. And you have many, many that are assisting and helping you. You are not alone, my friends, never have been, never will be. We are all in this together. Remember that. We are all in this together.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum. Greetings to you! One Who Serves here. Shoshanna here. We are ready.

And yes, we are all in this together, people! All as one, one for all! All for one, it is one happy celebration that we are coming to, we are working toward. We are ready on our side, and we are just helping to get you ready as well.

Every chance we can, we help to assist you in continuing to find yourselves in those higher vibrations more and more. You get little nudges here and there from your Higher Selves who are working diligently to continue to bring you along, to continue to keep you in those higher vibrations whenever possible.

And when you tend to fall back down into the illusion, and you let those things that are going on around you upset you, and get you disconsolate, and feeling like there is no hope, your Higher Self then comes in and whispers to you, "Keep the strength, Dear One, keep the strength! Everything is happening exactly as it needs to." And then all of a sudden you lift back up and everything is wonderful, and you begin to see the light through the dark clouds. You begin to see that light peaking through, and you begin to see the rose garden appearing in front of you, and all these things that you have that are wonderful to see the beauty. And we say this many times over and over. See the beauty. It is all there if you look for it. The truth is certainly out there if you want to find it.

And those that are beginning to awaken are beginning to see that truth. Because all of this ugliness, all of this chaos that is going on, is all designed to bring people to the truth, to bring people to the great awakening, the awakening that you are already in process of.

And some of you have already almost fully awakened—not to the point of ready for ascension, but that is coming as well. So, be ready, here. It is coming. You are coming. Everything is exactly where it needs to be. Everything is wonderful if you see it that way.

If you want to be on that timeline that is beginning to show itself more and more within the higher vibrations, then just know yourself to be there. That is all you have to do. And even when you fall back down temporarily, you can pull yourself right back up. It is not how many times you get knocked down, it is how many times you can jump back up. And we say jump back up, not just pull yourself back up, but jump back up. Okay?

We are ready now for questions. Do you have questions for One Who Serves and Shoshanna? You can unmute your phones now, we are ready for your questions.

Guest: Dear One Who Serves, I am in a state that is almost indescribable. That meditation with Beloved Lord Ashtar was so powerful, and I was so deeply involved in feeling my reunion with so many people on the other side. And I remember who I was, and people that I left behind many, many, many lifetimes. I was in the middle of just remembering and seeing the reunion, and enjoying myself. I was crying with joy. It was just magnificent.

And then in that moment he said that I had to come back, and I didn't want to come back, it was so magnificent! I remember when he said, "But you have done this; you have said good-bye to your loved ones so many times, and now you have to come back." And I knew I had to come back. I am not sorry because I had to come back, but yes I am, actually.

But here is my point, One Who Serves: I wish, and I am asking the Beloved Source, to please consider the human condition on the timing. Because I know times doesn't exist, I understand, I really believe so. But here we are in this 3-D, and it is difficult with this postponing, and knowing who we are and we are all connected, and our families are waiting for us, and all this knowing about the Great Reunion. That really is difficult for the ones that are here in the 3-D. And I am just praying for this to really happen now, not three years from now. Please. That's what I have to say.

OWS: Very good. And we will say, here, that what you experienced during this visualization from the Ashtar, what you experienced there is just a small smidgen of what will actually occur when it happens, as we are speaking about, here.

But with your next Advance, you are going to have a major experience of this as well. This is planned, here, that many of you will be going home for the experience, and going back to your families, and seeing them, and experiencing with them, and feeling with them again. And when you say good-bye at that time, you will know that it is only for a very short time period before you are fully back with them. And when we say 'fully back with them,' we mean in the physical experience, not so much the astral and etheric experience, but fully physically with them.

And that is what is planned for the next Advance as one of the experiences, here. So get ready, because what occurred here is going to be multiplied many times over in the Advance, and then even more so, of course, when it actually occurs. Okay?
Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell)

We can share on this. May we share, our Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, Dear Sister. Thank you.

Shoshanna: Our Beloved Sister, it is important that you see that the sense of separation is a 3-D reality. There is no separation. It is all one. That which you experienced in meditation will be experienced in your waking state if you choose this. The separation is a program. It is not real. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Wonderful perspective. Would there be other questions, here?

Guest: I would like to, please. Hi. I just want to make a comment about our sister, and say that I felt her. She speaks from her heart. She is so lovely a soul. I've known her for a long time in other lifetimes and in this one, and I just wanted to make a comment about her heart and how she comes from her sweet heart.

Okay, I do have a question, and that is, yesterday, well, I look at the sky every day because it is so blue and beautiful. But I saw a light come out from the sun. I think it came from the sun (it wasn't chem-trails I don't think), and it made a big 'V' in the sky, the way I saw it. My daughter was sitting there on the porch also. We both saw it. It was really white, and didn't spread out usually like a chem-trail. Is there something special that we are supposed to see in the sky from the sun or from our Creator at this moment?

OWS: Yes. What was going to happen, what Ashtar was going to speak about but he chose not to at this point, because it was left for another who will come possibly the next week here, that is going to share more about what is coming in terms of from the skies, from the stars, those of your brothers and sisters in the ships, and what they are preparing for, here.

And this is a particular beginning of that, and will be shared more, again, as we say, very possibly in this next week you have for this call, and another will appear or come and speak to you about this, the preparations that are underway now to bring visualization, we will say, to many, many more across the planet that you are not alone.

Guest: Oh, thank you so much.

OWS: Yes. Shoshanna, anything you add here?

Shoshanna: We do not add, here.

OWS: Yes, would there be any other questions, here? Anything further?

Guest: Yes, I have a question. Can you hear me okay? Because I'm having trouble breathing. Can you hear me okay?

OWS: Yes, we hear you.

Guest: I often go to the Radiant Rose Academy for inspiration and knowledge. And it's been my understanding that when we reincarnate, you could literally go anywhere, any planet, any galaxy, any universe.

But just recently in listening to discourse from Queen An-Ra, who used to be with the family of Ra, and she is from the Andromedan star system now, she indicated in her last discourse that we always return back to planet Earth, which is something that I didn't know. So there is just a little bit of confusion there now.

Could you provide some further information on that as to the way we reincarnate, if we have a choice, or can we go anywhere, or do we always return back to Earth?

OWS: What we can tell you is not always return back to Earth. That is not correct.

But what is correct is that many of you, even those of you, the Light-Workers and Warriors, have become somewhat trapped, we will say, in terms of coming back, and coming back, and coming back. But you are coming back mostly because you are meant to, that this was your mission, your volunteered mission to be a part of this evolution, to experience this evolution. So even though you may want to say, "I'm not going back there again, this is not going to happen," your guides assist you to follow your mission, which then is to come back again.

Now, with that being said, in the times coming, first of all, as you move through the Ascension process, your process of going through the death process as you have done so many times before in a short period of time, each one, is going to certainly be lengthened. You are not going to go through that process as you have before. And when you actually do, and this is a choice when you do it, when you do, you will be able to then choose to go anywhere that you want, because your mission here will be over.

But, as we have said many, many times before, even though your mission here will be over, your volunteering will be over here, most of you will decide to go and do it all over again somewhere else. After a period of rest and relaxation, of course, which could be years, or hundreds of years, or thousands of years, or however you want to look at it. Because time is relative, here, in terms of you will not look at it in terms of your three-dimensional sense of time anymore. So after that period, whatever it might be, you will choose to go bust a system wide open somewhere else, because that is what you do. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share on this. Dear Brother, may we share with you?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Dear Brother, our perspective is this: that the soul consciousness is vast, is complex, it is unknowable in your third-dimensional understanding. When you are no longer in the third-dimensional body and you have chosen to plan your next life, your soul will direct the consciousness as to what it needs to expand its own consciousness and to become more united with Source energy, you see.

So we will tell you that we cannot tell you if you'll return to Earth. We cannot tell you if you will live on Venus. Your soul has a clarity that is unknown to us. When you are no longer in the body, the clarity that you have does not include attachments, you see. You are not attached. So you can make decisions clearly with much clarity as to what your next journey will be as it relates clearly to your soul's advancement, you see. It is vast. It is not just you. It is collective of you, you see. Does this make sense to you, Dear Brother?

Guest: Yes, it does. Thank you so much.

Shoshanna: Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Wonderful. Would there be other questions, here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: When the video first came out with George Floyd that we've all seen so many times, I remember watching that, and something just didn't feel right, like they weren't portraying the truth. And now there's an attorney coming out that says he actually was George Floyd's attorney and that George Floyd died three years ago. Just wondering what you can tell us, if this attorney is correct. If George Floyd actually died three years ago, or if the whole thing was a set-up and an act, or anybody actually even died that day of the video.

OWS: What we can tell you here is things are not as they appear to be most of the time. And it is all part of the illusion, all part of the creation of this illusionary programming system by your forces of darkness, the cabal, whatever you want to call them, the deep state now, all of these names for them, it is all the same. They are all about keeping you in the illusion. That is what they attempt to do, here.

Because they know once you have pulled out of the illusion, pulled out of the programming, that they have lost, you see. They know once you have awakened as a collective consciousness of the planet, they have lost. And they are doing everything that they can to keep that from happening. And this particular incident, as well as many other what you call 'false flags' that have happened over the years, here, are all a part of this.

But, understand that whenever one of these incidences happen, what is it that occurs? All of you have those cell phones with your picture-taking ability, and everything appears on your internet, even moments or hours after that. Because people are aware. And they are making more and more people aware, and helping them to awaken across the planet. So again, everything is not as it appears. But the truth is there if you search for it enough. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share on this. May we share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, one must understand that this incident was successful in many ways. It does not matter what happened. It does not matter who the individual was. It is an agenda. It is a narrative, as you call it in your news, that creates a consciousness of fear. When you are researching a particular of any deep state third-dimensional occurrence, as you call it, you will never find the truth. And the truth is not the truth! There is no truth to this! There is a way to create fear, delusion, chaos, misunderstanding, and to keep all the beings that wish to move away from this third-dimensional chaos anchored to the chaos.

So we will advise, and we apologize for our tone, that you do not research this, as there is no truth. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you. And I am not researching it, I just happened to hear that. But my research is what my third eye and my knowingness tells me, and when I watched it, I knew that it wasn't truth. So I just it could be helpful in opening other people's eyes if what I'm seeing is correct, if I have some kind of other proof for them to help them awaken. Because me just telling them I can see with my own knowingness that this is not correct is not always enough for someone else. But if you can say, look, this attorney represented him three years ago, the man was already dead. That's something tangible that people can use to help awaken. So that's why I'm just curious if anybody actually died that day.

Shoshanna: We do not have anything further.

OWS: Very good. Then we move on. Are there any other questions, here?

Guest: Yes, I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: I am wondering if there is a process that you recommend for us or for me personally to start awakening the consciousness and developing clairvoyance and start having communication with divine beings either from celestial or from the cosmos.

OWS: You are asking in terms of a personal nature, here, and we are not apt to speak in terms of personal for you, but as a collective, here. And certainly, those of you that are on these calls, those of you are turning to the Light, or have certainly turned to the Light and are finding themselves in higher vibrations more and more are going to, and are even beginning now, as we find it, to experience the awakening of your 'gifts of spirit,' or what you might call 'psychic powers' or even some are saying 'super powers,' whatever it might be. And all of this is coming. It is a part of the awakening process, a part of the Ascension process. A part of the moving up into the higher vibrations. And in those higher vibrational frequencies of the higher dimensions, you will have those abilities.

But understand that those abilities are not something that is coming to you for the first time. They are coming back to you. You are re-awakening those abilities within you, because your DNA process is expanding into those connections that had been severed long ago, here. And those connections are returning in your DNA, here.

There is much, much more to this, but it is coming for you more and more to understand at your consciousness level, but not at your three-dimensional consciousness level. One that stays within that three-dimensional consciousness illusion cannot understand even the question that you are asking how it is even possible. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share. Dear Sister, are you requesting that we clarify your gift of clairvoyance?

Guest: No. My understanding is this is a special time and manifestation can be enhanced with this solstice and eclipse going on, so I was wondering if they had any advice in a process, like a meditation, or visualization, to awaken and expand our consciousness to awaken our clairvoyance ability. Does that make sense?

Shoshanna: Do you wish to have this gift?

Guest: I do.

Shoshanna: Do you have this gift?

Guest: What I am learning, and what I just heard from the One Who Serves is yes I do, but I forgot it (?).

Shoshanna: We find that you have experience this gift. And we find that...if we may share further, we must ask permission to share further.

Guest: Oh, yes, please.

Shoshanna: We find that you have had experiences of this gift, and that your doubts have created a barrier to your gift. The one thing that we can tell you is that you must not doubt your ability. When a human being experiences the clairvoyance, clairaudience, all the 'clairs,' and you will experience them intermittently throughout your life, to strengthen them you must acknowledge it and do not doubt it. As it is happening across the planet to many, you see. Does this make sense to you, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes it does. Thank you very much.

Shoshanna: Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Are there any other further questions here? Anything further?

Guest: Yes, One Who Serves and Shoshanna. Hello Dear Ones. It has come to my attention recently certain videos of someone who is sharing stuff from all kinds of Light-workers all around. And they have these very intricate exercises or meditations that they want us to do. It seems like it is very important, very imminent. So I started thinking, maybe I need to do more. So yesterday I tried one of them, and it was quite extreme. It was like you needed to visualize light around the Earth in about 20 or 25 different colors, but each one for 72 seconds each. And it was exhausting.

I'm just wondering when we see these kinds of things, and there are tons of them, they are everywhere, how much of this is important for us to do? I understand that they are important, but how much do we need to do in that kind of work?

OWS: That is a wonderful question, here. We would say, there is no 'must,' here. There is no 'shoulds.' It is what you feel like you are guided to do, you see?

Everything is not for everyone. So whatever someone or some being that channels through, or whatever, might give as a meditation, as a visualization, it might be for some, but not for everyone. 'Each to his or her own,' is the saying that you have, you see? So just allow. Go with the flow, here. If it feels right to you, then do it. If it does not feel right to you, then do not do it. Do not feel guilty or feel like you need to be doing something that you are not doing. Because all of you are on the path. All of you are again, as we say many, many times, exactly where you need to be. You have to come to understand that more and more. So whatever is, is. Go with the flow, here, okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We can share on this. May we share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, please, Dear.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, when an activity such as meditation causes a feeling of exhaustion, it is not the meditation for you, you see. You have degraded your energy. Instead of creating more energy, you have created a minus factor in your energy. So we will tell you to be very aware, as One Who Serves has given here. When any message is 'you must,' 'you should,' 'this is the way to create a higher consciousness around the planet,' etc ., etc., you must adhere to your own Higher Self's advice, you see. If a meditation makes you feel good, and makes your energy expound, that is the right meditation. Anything else is a detraction from consciousness, you see. Namaste.

OWS: We would give, there are two words to associate with your meditations: those two words, very simple: 'effortless effort.' Contemplate that. Feel what that means to you. 'Effortless effort' in regard to meditation.

Guest: Thanks so much.

OWS: Would there be any other questions, here? Any other questions before we take the e-mail questions? Then we are ready, Sister, here.

Guest: Yes, thank you, One Who Serves. The first question is what kind of challenges will we face when we get into the fifth dimension?

OWS: Looking at the fifth dimension in terms of challenges is not the way to go about this. Because that is a third-dimensional consciousness type of thinking, here.

Challenges. You are not going to have 'challenges' as you understand them as you move into the higher vibrations.

The way to look at this is, you go out into nature and you are around beauty all around you. And you feel the energy. And you feel the water's energy, and all of this. Are there challenges there? No. No challenges there.

It is only when you slip back into the third-dimension in terms of, "oh, now I need to make a shelter, and I need to get in from the cold," or "it's raining and I need to get under something to keep from getting wet," or whatever it is. That's where the challenges come from, you see? But you are not going to have those types of challenges.

Now, with that understanding, also understand that as you move into those higher vibrations, you are going to have a period of becoming acquainted with the new energies, with the new higher vibrations. It is going to be a period of coming to understand what you are experiencing. What you are feeling, you see? Because you are going to be relating to consciousness like you have never done here in these lifetimes here on the Earth before, or most of you have not, anyway. There have been lifetimes for some of you where you have experienced that temporarily, here.

But you are going to come to that point where it is going to become permanent. But not all at once. You are moving through a transition now. And when you move into the higher vibrational frequencies of the fifth dimension and beyond, there will be a transition period there as well. So you are not going to go from (what is your saying) 'zero to 60' in two seconds. It may take five or six seconds, you see? Do you understand this?

Guest: Yes, I'm sure that that's clear for the one who asked.

OWS: Very good. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add, here?

Shoshanna: We can share, and we will say that what has been given is very clear. What we will say is that challenges are tied to survival. And survival is a three-dimensional program. There is no survival program in the fifth dimension. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Think in terms of your chakra centers. And your first chakra is that survival center, that fight or flight type of thing. And that chakra, as well as your second, and even your third chakra, are going to be greatly diminished in terms of what you are going to be focused on. You are going to be focused on the fourth chakra and above, you see. So the survival, all of that, will be a thing of the past, more and more as you continue to become acclimated. (That is the word we were looking for before.) When you become acclimated to the higher energies. Just as you are becoming acclimated to the energies now as we continue to bring them to you during these guided meditations.

You thought maybe you were just doing the same guided meditation over and over with a little difference here and there. But it is all meant for a purpose, here, to continue to bring the downloads to you, the higher energies to acquaint you and acclimate you to these energies once again. That is the purpose here for this. Would there be other questions here before we release channel?

Guest: Yes. There are two more questions from the e-mail. The second one, here, is at our Ascension, will our superpowers be automatic, or are we going to have to work to attain them?

OWS: We think we have already answered this question in terms of there will be a transition period. Just as you are transitioning now. Just as you are becoming reacquainted with some of those superpowers, or as we like to call it, 'gifts of spirit,' you are becoming reacquainted to them now. It is a slow process, maybe, but the more that you believe it, the more you will see it. And certainly as you move into the higher vibrational frequencies, you will see it a lot more, because you will believe it a lot more. Okay? Shoshanna, anything you want to add?

Shoshanna: We will share on this. Those that have transcended the third-dimensional consciousness that live in a higher vibrational state do not think of themselves as having superpowers. This is a third-dimensional idea. They do not think of themselves as superman, or superheroes, or superpowers. This is all from your third-dimensional ideas, here. So we will tell you that those that have ascended that live in the higher vibrations accept their consciousness and accept their ways of being. So if they wish to bilocate, they do. If they wish to levitate, they do. If they wish to read minds, they do. They do not think of it as a power. It is a way of being in those dimensions. Namaste.

OWS: And we would also add here in relation to this: to those of you that may come across those that say they are Ascended Masters and they are in physical body, and they are in the room with you, or whatever, and are touting their abilities, we would say be wary of this. Because those of us that are at the point where we have mastered the illusion, mastered the physical body, we do not come right out and say that. And certainly we do not appear to you physically. There are occasions when this happens, but we do not lead groups, and we do not do that type of thing to tout our abilities, you see? Anyone that does that, be wary of them. Okay? Any other further question, here, before we release channel?

Guest: There is one quick question. As of January of next year, 2021, will we all be microchipped?

OWS: We will say here the plan for those of the dark forces is to do so. That is what they are working toward. That is what this virus thing is all about here, to lead to the point where you are more and more controlled. And this is a process of control. It is a process of tracking people and keeping them under their thumb, you might say, and all of this is their plan. That is not the divine plan, you see?

And the divine plan is in the works and, as we have said many, many times, cannot be stopped. The path of the Light cannot be stopped. The path of the darkness is already lost. Anything to add, Shoshanna, to this?

Shoshanna: We do not add.

OWS: Very good. Then we are finished for the time. Do you have any parting message, here?

Shoshanna: We do not.

OWS: Very good. Then we will release channel with this understanding:

Continue each one of you to find that higher vibration within you. Look for it. Experience it. Make it your life that you are in more and more those higher vibrations. If it takes going out into nature, do so. That is wonderful. But you can do it right within your (inaudible). It is possible, here. And that is what you need to continue to work on as you continue to move through this transition which is taking you through the Ascension process and to your final Ascension, here.

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.

Guest: Thank you so much for the beautiful, beautiful questions and answers. Thank you.
