

19.12.22 - This Is What You Are Here To Do

Yeshua (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am Yeshua. I come now at this time, in this moment of peace of oneness, your Christmas season, your holiday season.

[I AM] Not coming because this was my time of birth. You are not celebrating my birth those two thousand years ago. You are celebrating the birth of the Christ Consciousness within all. Whether it is this time of year, or another time of the year, whenever it is, it is all about a celebration of the Light, a celebration of love, of higher consciousness here on the planet. Of bringing the Christ Consciousness down to this planet, anchoring it here, holding it here, and then spreading it with good cheer amongst all of your brothers and sisters. That all of your brothers and sisters across the planet, whether it is this day, or your 25th of December, or in the Spring of each year, whenever it is, can celebrate the rising of the Christ Energy amongst all of you and within all of you.

The birth of the Christ, not my birth. I wasn't even born at this time of your year, as many of you have now become aware. I was born in the Springtime, in the time of new energies coming forth. The perfect time for the Christ to be born amongst the Spring, amongst the new growth everywhere.

Many of you are aware of why your 25th of December was chosen as the birthday of myself, and I am not going to go into that, but only that the Christ Energy--that is what it is, it is an energy, it is not a being, it is a title, yes, that can be taken on, but it is the energy, Source energy that comes into all who are ready for it, all who call to it.

And all of you are calling for this energy, especially at this time of the year. Because at this time of the year, what is this about among many of you? It is about giving. It is about giving forth your Light, your energy, your love, whether it is in gifts, or whether it is simply sharing the energy in however way you can do it, sharing the light, bringing peace to the planet and good will to all men and women of the planet, raising consciousness everywhere.

And consciousness is raising, my friends, everywhere. People are waking up everywhere. Yes, there are many who still find themselves in a deep slumber. But they do not even know that they are yet asleep. They think this is the only reality, a reality that they have been programmed into believing.

But those of you who have awakened, you are the ones that are reaching out and sharing with your brothers and sisters whenever you have the opportunity. And those opportunities do arise. And there are those times, as you spoke of earlier in your discussion, where the energies will exacerbate either into higher vibrations or lower vibrations. But the energies do bring out whatever is within you in the moment that needs to be looked at and worked on.

You call it tests, you are being tested. You are not being tested. Not by us. Not by the Creator. You are only being tested by yourselves within yourselves. It is in your perception that there is a test here, and whether you pass it or fail it. There is no passing or failing.

There just is, in the moment, working with these energies, and allowing these energies to bring you up whenever you can, finding that neutral state within you. And when you find that neutral state, it matters not how strong the energies are, or remaining in neutral. You will remain in the moment, and the Source energy within you will come forward and speak loudly. You will find yourself then in your power, in a power of love within you. That is what will speak forward.

Just as I spoke with the power of love coming through me when I overturned those tables. But it was in righteousness, it was in love, not in anger. It may have appeared to be anger to those around, and many have taken what occurred in those moments and have changed it into whatever would work for them to bring control into this situation. It was not in anger. It was always in love. Always in oneness.

That is what you are all here to do in this time of the year, in this season. To continue to hold that Light, hold that love within you, raise that Christ Consciousness within you and let it come forward and spring out into so many more lights to share with all around you. Literally see yourself as the Light. See the light flowing from you, shooting out from you and touching your brothers and sisters around you. And see them then taking that light in and making it their own.

And if there is one who requires some healing sustenance, be that Light bringing that healing to them. But you must see the health within that one, not the sickness. Not the disease. Not the crimplenes. Not the blindness. See them in perfect health. Then they will begin to manifest that perfect health.

Find yourselves now in this time of the season and in the coming new year, find yourselves as much as you can being the bearers of Light. Being the ones who go forward, the wayshowers, the forerunners, bringing the Light to all who are ready for it, helping more and more to awaken from that slumber. You can do it. And it is only you that can do it.

I am Yeshua, and I leave you at this time in peace and love and oneness, to take you through the rest of this year to the end of this year, and into the glorious next year that is fast approaching now, as the New Dawn approaches.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum. Greetings to you! One Who Serves here. Shoshanna is standing by.

And we are ready to continue to rock and roll, and we are getting ready for this New Year's Eve celebration. And speaking of rocking and rolling, get ready for that, because Yours Truly, the one you call 'The Funny One,' we call 'the Stand-Up' here, he is going to be bringing in the new year with you. And he may even have a drink or two through this one James, here, kind of imbibing through this one rather than directly, if you understand what we say, here.

We are ready for your questions if there are any. Would you have questions? You can now unmute your phones, and we are ready to go, here.

Guest: Yes. May I speak?

OWS: Yes. You are already doing so.

Guest: Alright. Woof, woof! (Laughter) There seems to be a spirit walking the land here where I live in New Mexico. She appears as an indigenous female. She showed herself to me a number of years past.

A neighbor who is talking the Light path has seen her as me, or a version of me. For example, I was out in the yard this summer cutting down some grass with some hedge clippers in the driveway and he was driving away. He lives right behind here in a small compound on this property. So when he looked over to me, he noticed it wasn't me, but a woman with a long black braid, and that is one of the features of this female spirit that seems to be here.

I have often wondered if I might have some relationship with her, and that my friend may have a relationship with her as well. But she did appear to me first. And if there is anything that I can do to support her journey if she happens to be earthbound and that she needs to move on, or that she has chosen to be here for a purpose. And if I could assist her by in knowing that reason or having a hint of that reason or purpose that I could assist her in some way in her journey. Can you provide me with information and support with that, please?

OWS: Yes, we can. This is an example of what has been coming for some time more and more, and will occur to more and more of you, where this blending effect between the dimensions is going to become more and more prevalent, and the connections with those of your multidimensional selves are also going to become more prevalent and prominent to you, and this is what is occurring.

You certainly have connection with this one that is showing up now in your experience. She is there to assist you in continuing on with what is coming for you in the times ahead. And there is also connection in that particular area where you live as well where this one has a connection there with this, just as you do.

And again, we put this out, not only to you who asked this question, but to many out there that are beginning to experience this, and are going to experience this even more and more as these energies continue to ramp up, and the veil, the illusionary veil, we will say, because it is really not there, but it is still there according to your three-dimensional perception, here. But that particular veil is continuing to fade away more and more, because your programming is fading away more and more as these energies continue to ramp up. And that is what is going to continue to happen, here.

Shoshanna, do you have something to add, here?

Shoshanna (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell):

Yes, we can share. May we offer our perspective to you, Dear Sister?

Guest: yes, of course, Dear One.

Shoshanna: As we tune into this one that you are experiencing, we find a deep connection. And we find that she is solemn. She is not wishing for you to assist her, she does not need that. She is here to assist you and others that see her. She has shown herself in hopes that you will connect with her on a more consistent basis. She has much to show you. She has much to tell you if you can tune into this. She, as a native, as a Native-American female, she has much in common with you, as she sees the world as you do, (laughs), if you can understand what we are saying. So please offer the connection to her, as she will show you many things. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Are there other questions, here? Any other questions? No? then if there are no other questions, then we are through for the time, here.

Shoshanna, do you have anything you wish to impart as ending wisdom here for this time?

Shoshanna: We are going to save our message for the New Year's call.

OWS: Yes. Wonderful. We are going to have a good time, New Year's Eve, are we not?

Shoshanna: Yes.

OWS: We are gearing up for this. I hope you are all gearing up, not only for this particular call, but for this next year, all of you. It is going to be quite a ride, especially for those who are in that awakened state already. Not so much maybe for those who are still asleep, because it will be an awakening for many of them throughout this next year, here. But more of this to come on the New Year's Eve celebration.

With that, we will, what you call, 'sign off.'

Shanti. Peace be with you. Be the one.
