

20.09.27 - Fly as the eagle flies

ANCIENT AWAKENINGS – PREPARE FOR CHANGE

Sunday Call 20.09.27 (KaRa, OWS, Shoshanna)

James & JoAnna McConnell

KaRa (Channeled by James McConnell)

I am KaRa. It is always a pleasure to be here with you in these moments, in these times of great change that are happening on your world. Not only on your world, but in your solar system.

Now through the galaxy, as the entire solar system and galaxy are watching all that is playing out in front of us. Watching you, those of you there on the ground, which you call the 'Boots on the Ground,' that are fast making the changes, bringing the changes about to this planet, to the collective humankind.

All of you are doing your part, whatever that part might be. Some may think it is just a small part. Some feel like they are having a larger part in it. But it is all one. There is no smaller or larger part to play, here. You all have a part in this.

And it is as if you have come to a precipice. You are standing on that precipice looking out across the vistas in front of you. And some of humanity will step off that precipice fall. They will fall right out of their physical forms, because they will not be ready to move into those higher vibrations and higher consciousness. It will not be for them, so they will find this as their exit point. And then there are others who will stand upon the precipice and be afraid to leave it, be afraid to move on in their journey. So they will remain in the lower levels of consciousness, right where they have been. They will stay within their comfort zones.

And then there are those of you who are ready to step off that precipice, to physically step off it. But not fall, but soar! Fly! Across the clouds. Fly as the eagle flies. Because you are meant to. You are ready to. You are ready to move fully through this ascension process, and realize your full ascension. Yes, it will take a great many changes yet to come to this planet.

For many are still destined to bring changes that some will be ready for, and some not. Just as you have been watching from your point of view and seeing all of the things that are happening. And looking at it though, mostly from a higher point of view now. If you are looking at it from the point of view of all of those that are yet still asleep, then you will remain in that sleep state temporarily. But those of you who look at the many changes that are occurring and see it for what it is: not a great division, but a great awakening that is coming from the divisions that are appearing. And I say 'seemingly' appearing, because they are not really divisions. It is all a part of the awakening. As everything is coming together exactly as it needs to.

And those of us within our ships looking down upon all of this, watching, waiting, preparing for the moment when we are called more fully into service. And ready to assist all of you who have then risen into the higher vibrations, and are ready then to meet us. As we lower our vibration, you raise yours. And then we can meet together. We can be as one again. Families reuniting again. Families that have been so far apart for so long.

But yet, as you look back at this, you will look back at this as just a moment in time, even though it is an entire lifetime for you. In the grand scheme of things, it is only but a moment. And you will remember fondly how you were a part of this great moment. All of us, as we watch, as we assist wherever we can. We are here to help bring this entire awakening upon you.

It is all of you that are necessary to create the avenues of expression that are needed to bring this awakening forward. You are all meant to do this. We are all meant to do this together. And together we will, and are, moving forward, bringing an end to the great divide. Bringing an end to those dark forces that have held sway upon this planet for so long, but are now losing their momentum. For in reality, they have very little, or no momentum left. It has been taken away from them by you--by you, the awakened ones.

For that was their greatest fear, that you would awaken. And awaken, you have!

So let yourselves continue to move forward now. Move forward. Raise your vibration whenever you can, whenever you think about it. Just be in that higher vibration. If it takes going out into nature, then do that. Whatever it takes to raise your consciousness within the moment. Within any given moment, you can raise your consciousness and overcome all the frailties and the programming of the 3-D wor4ld, of the 3-D illusion that you have created here.

Just as you have created this 3-D illusion, you can un-create it, and create that which is the new reality that is to be a part of the New Age, the New Golden Age of Gaia.

I am KaRa. And I leave you now in peace, and love, and oneness.

And know that we are here to be with you, to share with you. And very soon we are going to be here more fully than we have up to this point. It is happening as you look out within the skies at night and you see the twinkling stars, know that many of those twinkling stars are not, but they are our ships. We are here in the millions and millions to be with you in this Great Changeover time.

ONE WHO SERVES (Channeled by James McConnell)

Om, mani, padme, hum; om, mani, padme, hum; hum, hum. Greetings to you! One Who Serves here. Shoshanna is here, and we are ready to move ahead with your questions, if you have them.

Do you have questions for One Who Serves and Shoshanna? You can unmute your phones. We always forget to ask you to do that. You can unmute your phones now, and we can hear your lovely voices, and ready to assist here if we can.

Guest: Hello Dear Ones and Shoshanna. A while back I've had a vision in one of my meanderings, or experience, I'll call it, where I was brought forth from the two twin flames who I guess would be my Higher Self. They together brought me forth along with my twin flame. I wasn't sure if they actually called me from somewhere else, or they actually created myself and my twin flame. So I'd be curious about that. I thought perhaps they had called us from somewhere else or perhaps they had created us, I wasn't sure which.

But at any rate, I also was wondering if the process of creating an aspect involved the two aspects, the twin flame and the other aspect. And then if that's the case, then would not our Higher Self be both of those aspects?

OWS: My Dear Sister, you are moving into a realm of consciousness and knowing that is quite beyond the actual understanding that can come within our three-dimensional consciousness and understanding, here. But as you ask this, we can give you that certainly you are on the right track in many respects, here. As your Higher Self is the catalyst, we will say, here. The one that brings you into the picture, here. But you also have understood from times past, here, that your Higher Self is, you might say, a lower self of another Higher Self. And then that one is also a lower self of another Higher Self, and so on, and so on, all the way up to what would be considered the 'monad,' which would be more of the beginning of who you are as a being, as a spiritual being.

So to understand all of the aspects and all of this, it is very difficult. But know that there are various aspects of yourself that have come from the direct Higher Self that you know of at this point. But you do not know much about the Higher Selves beyond that one, and beyond that one, and so on, and so on. And to be able to come to an understanding again at your three-dimensional consciousness or readiness, here, is quite difficult to fathom. But we will turn this over to Shoshanna, for she may have a different, not better, but different perspective, here, we can offer.

Shoshanna: (Channeled by JoAnna McConnell)
We can share on this. May we share, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, please, Dear One.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, you are called forth and created in the same moment. It is the same thing. We also must say that it is important, if we may share this perspective with you, that you focus on the journey that has been created by you for you for this life. That you, as the one called your name, focus on what your mission is, what your journey is, and that you fulfill that as best as you can. This is the most important thing that all can do in this moment, in this life, you see. It is difficult for all that are Starseeds, all that are System Busters, all that are beyond truly the third-dimensional life, to being themselves to a focus in this life. It is far more comforting and far easier for these Starseeds to focus on who they were, what they were, and why they were, as they long for this. We must caution all to bring themselves to this moment in time where they must fulfill the mission that has been designed by them and given to them for this life. Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Do we have further questions, here?

Guest: Yes, I do have a question. It seems the month October is going to be very interesting for the Schumann. I was wondering if you have any suggestions to us in how to prepare those that are not awake yet, or in social media, how to prepare them mentally, psychologically, and physically for these upcoming changes? For example, I notice people getting very scared, when a lot of people are doing their transitioning when they are very young in age, or not even sick. So how can we bring a little bit of comfort to those who are not aware of these changes that are natural?

OWS: First of all, we would say for you, it is not your mission or your concern to be their caretakers, we will say, here. It is not for you to awaken them. Now, that is to say if they are asking for assistance, then you can be there. That is one of the missions that many of you as the Light Warriors, as you move along through this Ascension process, you will be called upon in this respect to assist others in their awakening process. But only when they call for it, only when they ask for it.

If you are concerned about others and what you are not doing for them, then you are losing something within yourself. You are missing something along your own personal journey then, if you are only concerned about helping to awaken others.

Now, that is a sense of service to others, and that is wonderful. That is certainly a spiritual quality that you are all moving toward more and more. But it is not important for you to be concerned about whether they awaken or not. That is not for you. Only if they call for it, and ask for it, you see?

As far as your October as you are asking, we think we get this question every single September as you come up to it, as you are moving to these Octobers each year it comes up. You call it as 'October Surprise.' And yes, there have been various surprises possibly that have come, but not only in October. There are surprises in other months as well. In this year, certainly there were many surprises that came up, and many more still to come. So we can not tell you when they will be, or what they will be, but just that they will be. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We wish to share. May we share?

Guest: Yes, please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, we wish to ask a question.

Guest: Yes?

Shoshanna: Who is it that you are concerned for?

Guest: Family members, my parents that are older, family, friends. You know, people just in the world that are commenting that they are very afraid because they have been programmed that the war is ending, and a lot of people are dying. So to bring some comfort for them, to help them with guidance. I don't know, I was just thinking.

Shoshanna: We will say, Dear Sister, that anyone who chooses to be an influence, to be a comforter, must simply be the example. Those that will be drawn to you are drawn to you because you become the spiritual and loving soul that you are, and you exhibit that in each moment. It does not matter what others believe. It does not matter what others think, or it does not matter what others wish to do with their lives. That, of course, is not within your boundaries or your control.

What only is in your control is what you do, what you exhibit to others. We find that the highest master that has the most robust light attracts even those that believe in nothing, that believe that there is no god, there is no Source, there is no soul. They are still attracted to the one that has the brightest light, you see.

So your job, as it is in the job of all that are awakening, is to be the influence through their own actions, through their own light, and others will be attracted to that. That, is the most important thing to do here.
Namaste.

Guest: Thank you. Namaste.

OWS: Very good. Are there further questions, here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes?

Guest: James practice chakra meditations involving visualizing the chakras. I also do them on my own which I really enjoy. But I noticed a couple others teachers who I respect and like their work, but they are saying that is an old system, and they just talk about it like one big white light, as opposed to the seven chakra wheels inside are vehicles. So the question is, why are they talking about not focusing on our chakras?

OWS: You have a saying: "to each his or her own," do you not?

Guest: Yes.

OWS: Then that is what we would say, here. It is not important what one says or does not say, or whatever it is. It is what you resonate to. So there are various teachers, various ones that come forward and share a certain technique, or offer different tools. It does not matter what they are, or whose offering them, but it only matters, again, to what you resonate to. You are on your own personal journey in this. And if the chakra system resonates to you, then that is what you were being given, here.

And that is what for the most part those here on these calls in your ancient Awakenings are associated with the chakra system more fully than possibly some others might be. It is because of where you have come from. Many of you are from the Lemurian lineage, here, and even beyond that from other systems before that, where you had been together many times before, and you come together again. And the Chakra system and the tools utilizing the chakra system is what we determined some time ago that you would resonate to most fully. But again, it is not for everyone. Shoshanna, do you have anything to add, here?

Shoshanna: We will share. May we share our perspective with you, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes please.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, the chakras are not old. It is not an old system. It is not a new system. It is. It is a container for all of the soul's history and how the body reacts to the soul's history, and how the body forms itself out of the information that is contained in these history balls. It is not about whether you resonate to that, or whether you wish to understand that, or you wish to use that system. It exists.

Perhaps some wish not to focus any longer on that system. But it is not a matter of whether it is old or new. It is a matter of understanding that this is part of the being, part of the record, part of the soul. Namaste.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Are there other questions, here?

Guest: I have a question. I just watched the movie called 'Thrive II.' It was very thought-provoking documentary about the way that our world is being messed up by the Powers that Be. And I am just wondering what do you see as my roll in helping this and/or what should I work toward to make this a better world to live in?

OWS: First of all, we cannot directly answer your question, as a direct question, a personal question from you in this format we are using, here. Your roll, your journey, is your journey. And we are not here to tell you what that is.

But you can go within yourself. Now this is for everyone, here, not only for this one that asks. But everyone can go within themselves and ask. Ask their Higher Selves. Ask the guides that work with you as to what your next step should be, or where your mission is taking you, or whatever it might be.

Just as the one who was on earlier, the Dear Sister who spoke about she has put together the research and is waiting now for the next step. She will be given that next step if she is patient and she asks for it and waits.

It will come to you. It will not necessarily come directly in terms of voice or even a thought process, but it might be something you will be led to, or something of this nature. So this goes for you as well, Dear One. It is for you to decide what is best for you, and then go with it.

And if it works out, then it is most likely meant to be. If it is something that comes rather easy to you, it is usually meant to be. If it is something that meets with great resistance, then likely it is maybe not for you at that time, you see? Okay? Shoshanna, do you have anything to share?

Shoshanna: We will share. May we share, Dear Brother?

Guest: Of course.

Shoshanna: We find that when an individual is being influenced in some way by what they are seeing, by what they are feeling, by what they are believing, they must determine what this means for them. Because that is the journey. The journey is yours. The journey is to decide what is mostly influencing you.

So as you indicated, if you are watching this documentary and your heartstrings are pulled upon, and you have great feeling for what you are seeing, then that is an indicator that you must participate, that you are called to participate. What we will tell you is that the being that you are tends to overthink everything. (Guest giggles.) So you must now just simply feel. When you are seeing something like his documentary, you will notice your feelings about something, and when you notice your feelings, that is an indicator that you must move forward in that arena, in that direction. So we will tell you that is called 'resonating.' So when you are watching this, watch what you resonate to, and then pick that, and then move forward in that direction. Namaste.

Guest: Thank you.

OWS: Very good. Are there further questions, here?

Guest: I have a question.

OWS: Yes.

Guest: I want to know, will we know when we ascend? Will there be a special feeling, or do we go through some type of energy (of course, I am pretty sure, that), but blurriness, like we are under water? And then when we arrive, we will know that we have ascended?

OWS: Dear Sister, there will be absolutely 100% no question about whether or not you have ascended. When you have fully moved through the Ascension, not only just the Ascension process, as you are moving through now, but the full Ascension, no question about it. You will know that you have arrived in that sense. Not arrived at a final destination because, as we have said, there is never any one final destination. It is all part of the journey. But it is a stop along the way, we will say, is this great ascension. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We do not add to this.

OWS: Very good.

Guest: Sir, I don't know if you are allowed to. I'm not afraid to ask, though. Can you tell what we might feel in a 3-D definition?

OWS: We have given that many times within your meditations to be able to feel a sense, even just a small smidgeon, or small sense of what it will be like. So take that that you may have felt during one of your stronger meditations possibly, and then multiply it hundreds of times over, and you will begin to have a sense or a glimpse of what it will be like.

Guest: Okay.

Shoshanna: We will share. May we share?

Guest: Please do share, Honey.

Shoshanna: Dear Sister, each being, each human that will go through this process has a unique process. It will not be like any other. It is unique to each being, just as their fingerprints are unique. It is amazing how perfectly unique each being is, and how perfectly unique their journey is, you see. So to define steps, or define processes is quite impossible, you see. So that is up to you to define that for yourself and notice it. But as One Who Serves has given, you will know. There will be no doubt. So for you, you must simply be patient and go through the process as you have. Namaste.

OWS: Yes. Sit back and enjoy the ride.

Guest: Thank you very much, both of you. I love you dearly. Thank you.

OWS: Yes. Would there be any further questions, here? Then are we ready for your e-mail questions, Dear Sister?

Guest: Yes, thank you. There are two questions.

The first is, the earth long ago supposedly was owned by others, and then leased to those of us here now. Can you tell us the truth about this situation, or explain it. Thank you.

OWS: What we can tell you is, there are many stories that have been told over the many thousands and thousands of years in your existence here.

So to understand where it all began is very difficult to do, here. But know that no one can own the Earth, in a sense, here. It is the living planet, what we call the 'living library,' here, and it is for all. Just as when you go into a library and there are so many different books and different things to choose from, from so many different areas and so many different disciplines of various kinds. So too is it like here. There is so much here within this living library. And it is not for any one to own. It is for all. It is for all to experience and to enjoy, here. That is what the Earth was meant for, and that is what it is to this day. There have been those that have fought over it many times, and felt that they were the victors, so therefore to the victor goes the spoils. But it was never meant, or could be owned by any particular civilization, at least beyond their own thinking, we will say, here. They may have thought they owned it, but they did not. Okay? Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We do not add to this.

OWS: Very good. Then we move on to other question?

Guest: Yes, thank you. This person had listened to Cobra, and on Cobra there had been explained a war between the Alliance and the Dracos, and the Illuminati both above the Earth and within the Earth. Could you please explain it?

OWS: What we can tell you is yes, there are those battles, those wars that are continuing to bring freedom not only to this planet, but this entire solar system, here. Much of the solar system has already been freed here in that sense. But the planet is yet to experience the fullness of freedom that is destined for it. So there are those battles that are occurring. And the Alliance and the Galactic forces that have joined together are bringing an end to those nefarious dark forces that have attempted in many respects to own the Earth. But they cannot do that. So they are losing very fast, and it is coming to a conclusion very quickly here, as we find it in both above the planet, on the surface, and also below the surface as well. Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We do not add to this.

OWS: Very good. Then we feel we are finished for the time. Do you have parting message, Shoshanna?

Shoshanna: We do not.

OWS: Very good. Then we will simply part. We actually do not have message either, at this time. So we will just say, shanti, peace be with you. Be the one.

Shoshanna: Shanti. Namaste.
